Valuation Results have been posted by the financial team. The Deal Lead sends a notification to the Investee Deal Lead seeking Review and Valuation approval. The Investee Deal Lead approves, and both parties sign the contract which is posted for the Deal Lead in the Deal Space. The Successful Deal is now set for closeout. In this screen, the successful deal has been closed. The Deal Lead can still access the space, although there is a suggested decomission date (which the Deal Lead can override.) The Deal Lead clicks the “archive deal information” button to store the data from the deal.

The Deal Lead wants to decommission their account. By doing so they acknowledge that their identified private data will be deleted, their un-identified private data, and their public data will be integrated into the central statistical pool. They will be asked to review their data, and required to re-enter their password and SS-number (or security question answer, or something) to confirm their identity before decommissioning the account.
